EDITORIAL

A Happy New Year to all our readers! May 1966 bring Peace as well as Prosperity throughout the world. Judging from the very happy relations which existed at Hastings during the International Congress which began soon after Christmas and carried on until the 8th January, where chess players from many countries mingled together in harmony, the world would be a better place if politicians would emulate the friendly spirit shown by all who took part in the various tournaments! Frank Rhoden had gathered together a wonderful selection of players from this, and many other countries, and Ritson Morry, the Controller, had far fewer problems to solve than he gets at the B C F Congress! Certainly the Hastings Chess Club and the Hastings Council are to be congratulated on their efforts, which year after year make this a very popular event.

In the last number I drew your attention to the appeal of the President of the British Chess Federation for funds for the British Chess Educational Trust. If you have forgotten to send in your donation why not do so now? The address is: Mr I Cohen, 48 Beacontree Avenue, Walthamstow, London, E 17. Whatever you send will be doubled by the B C F..... and it is a worthy cause. Once a reasonable sum has been gathered in from chess players, and the Trust Fund is registered, the B C F hope to appeal to business and industrial interests to provide the really big money which will be needed to organise tournaments etc which will be essential if the scheme is to succeed. But big business will not help if the initial Trust Fund has failed to achieve its object i.e. £3,000 in subscriptions and the same amount from the B C F Funds. .... It is up to YOU and other chess players.

S C C U JAMBOREE 1965

On the 20th November we held our annual Luncheon prior to the Jamboree, and just over forty members and guests sat down in the Senior Partners' Dining Room at John Lewis, with Mr. S G R Champ of Surrey, presiding. Our guests of honour were Mr. H W R Keeble, our former London Match Controller and Mr. H MacDonald of the John Lewis Partnership. In proposing the toast of the Union, Sir Frederick Hoare, the B C F President, paid tribute to the work of Mr. Keeble over the past six years in providing playing facilities for county teams on 99 occasions, which had been enjoyed and appreciated by players from all parts of the southern counties during that time.

After lunch, the serious business of the day got under way and twenty teams went into battle for the Henlen Trophy; as last year ten counties entered senior teams and five of these also sent a junior side (as usual Surrey's juniors finished above the Senior side!). We also had, for the first time teams from the Civil Service and Cambridge University (who came in at very short notice when a county side withdrew). A team from London University, the Thames Valley League and the President's side completed the entries. When time was called there were a number of unfinished games, but careful consideration of several of these by the match captains and their expert advisers reduced the number needing adjudication to four and when these were decided, Cambridge University proved to be the winners, half a point ahead of the Thames Valley side. The final placings were as follows:-

1 Cambridge University  $7\frac{1}{2}$  points (44); 2 Thames Valley League 7 (48); 3 Kent Seniors  $6\frac{1}{2}$  (49); 4 Surrey Juniors  $6\frac{1}{2}$  (49); 5 London University  $6\frac{1}{2}$  (47); 6 Oxfordshire  $6\frac{1}{2}$  (46); 7 Civil Service 6 (53); 8 Sussex  $5\frac{1}{2}$  ( $55\frac{1}{2}$ ); 9 Essex Seniors  $5\frac{1}{2}$  ( $51\frac{1}{2}$ ); 10 Middlesex Seniors  $5\frac{1}{2}$  (49); 11 Surrey Seniors  $5\frac{1}{2}$  ( $46\frac{1}{2}$ ); 12 Buckinghamshire  $4\frac{1}{2}$  ( $54\frac{1}{2}$ ); 13 Kent Juniors 4 (58); 14 Berkshire 4 ( $55\frac{1}{2}$ ); 15 Middlesex Juniors 4 ( $54\frac{1}{2}$ ); 16 Hampshire Seniors 4 ( $48\frac{1}{2}$ ); 17 Bedfordshire 4 ( $47\frac{1}{2}$ ); 18 President's  $3\frac{1}{2}$  ( $47\frac{1}{2}$ ); Hampshire Juniors 2 ( $50\frac{1}{2}$ ) and 20 Essex Juniors  $1\frac{1}{2}$  ( $55\frac{1}{2}$ )

The figures in parenthesis are the total scores of the ten teams against whom the players in each team played.

I should like to thank, once again, a number of people whose hard work made this pleasant event possible. Firstly Miss Tranmer and Mr. Saw and those who came early and set out all the boards, sets, clocks and score sheets for our use, then to the team of recorders who once again kept the scores. Miss Titcomb and Mr. E Croker who recorded the results for permanent record and Mr. Sinclair and Mr. Morrish who again supplied a wall chart and kept it up to date to show the players how their teams were faring in the battle. Congratulations are due to the Match Captains who got their teams marshalled in good time and persuaded the players, in most cases, to set up the pieces at the end of the game to help those whose duty it was to put them away!

For the 1966 diaries the date provisionally fixed for the next Jamboree and luncheon is Saturday 19th November.

Jan 1966 I attach the results of the 1966 London Junior Championships played at St Bride Institute at the end of December and early January. Congratulations to D N L Levy of the Finchley Club and Hertfordshire on his retaining the "A E Hopkins" Trophy for the Under 21 Championship. The Under 18 Champion is R H Watson of Haberdashers' Aske's School, Elstree and he will hold the "R C Griffith" Challenge Cup. R L Johannes of Dulwich College won the Under 16 Championship and holds the "Sir George Thomas" Challenge Cup. G Graham of Quintin School, London N W 8 holds the "Chess Education Society" Challenge Cup as winner of the Under 14 Championship, and J D M Nunn of Elliott School, Putney, still just 10 years old, retains the "Donald Riches" Challenge Cup as well as the Under 12 title. Lynn S Rowland for the second year holds the "Cedars" Challenge Cup as the Under 12 Girls Champion. *(Results not attached)

Girls' Champion. In addition to congratulating all the prize winners, we should also thank all those who worked so hard to make this year's championships so successful. (But not attached.)

I also attach a copy of the entry form for the Southend Easter Congress at which the final of the SCCU Individual Championship and the Under 18 Championship will be held. Do make this, and the Congress at Folkestone over Easter as widely known as possible, so that each can have a bumper entry. These two Congresses are being organised by members of the S C C U for the benefit of S C C U players - so please support them if you can.

Next, there is the Battle of Britain Chess Tournament (held in aid of the R A F Benevolent Fund). Last year 218 entries were attracted. The earlier rounds are on a knock out system, organised in geographical zones to produce to finalists per zone. Thereafter, there are inter-zonal rounds until four winners emerge for the final. This will be played on an all play all basis during the evenings of early September. Entry forms can be obtained from Mr. J Kennedy, 70 Meadway, Bromley, Kent, and should reach him before the 7th February 1966. Please write to him soon if you wish to enter.

The Islington and North London Chess Club Open Championship, held at the En Passant, Strand, London, from Friday the 3rd to Sunday the 5th December attracted an entry of 24. B Green of Oxford University won the first prize of £20, with O M Hindle and C T Fox equal second. P N Lee, the reigning British Champion finished equal fourth. A very good effort on the part of Stewart Reuben. May we see more of these interesting events.

I hope to give the result of the S C C U Junior Jamboree in the next number - which should come out towards the end of February.
