JUNIOR CHESS In the Final of the B.C.F. inter-County Under-18 event, the S.C.C.U. were represented by Surrey in both Boys and Girls events. The Surrey boys scored 6-10 and Lancs 7-11 and when the unfinished games were duly adjudicated the scores were equal and Lancashire won on board count. The Surrey Girls scored 1 $\frac{1}{2}$  points and finished 3rd.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS The Editor has received with thanks the February issue of the Essex C.A. Bulletin, the March issue of the Surrey News Letter and the Easter issue of the Lancashire Chess Bulletin.

NORWICH JUNIOR INTERNATIONAL RESULTS

In the International Junior Chess Tournament at Norwich, regrettably R. Bellin was again well below his best whilst good returns were achieved by other British Isles players. Scores:-

- G. Sax, Hungary 12 $\frac{1}{2}$ ; J. Tarjan, USA, 12; Stean, England 10; Cox, Ireland and McKay, Scotland 9 $\frac{1}{2}$ ; J.D. Nunn, England 9; Rosenlund, Denmark and Velickovic, Yugoslavia, 8 $\frac{1}{2}$ ; R. Bellin, England 7 $\frac{1}{2}$ ; Wirthensohn, Switzerland 7; Fujol, Spain 6 $\frac{1}{2}$ ; Ivarsson, Sweden and Mack, Germany 6; De Jonghe, Belgium 3 $\frac{1}{2}$ , Moen, Norway 3 and Baillour, France 1.

WORLD CHAMPIONSHIP

It now appears that Fischer, U.S.A., has lost his chance to play Boris Spassky for the World title through his demands for increased financial benefits from the match. FIDE must now decide whether Spassky will continue to hold his title for a further period or give the losing finalist the right to challenge the World Champion.

Reported Australian attempts to save the match may well fail for lack of financial support.

SOUTHEND CONGRESS

The S.C.C.U. Individual Championship, played at this congress, was won by D. Sherman of Waltham Forest and Essex. Second was M.W.J. Thompson of Hampshire with J. Century, S. Weeramantry and another 3rd equal. (report by phone ex a player there).

INTER-COUNTIES COMPETITIONS 1972/73

After an exhaustive study of the present arrangements for the inter-counties competitions the Council of the Union have approved a complete re-organisation of these events. The new arrangements will become operational next season 1972/73 and there will be four divisions with promotion and relegation between all divisions. Teams will consist of twenty players in the two top divisions and a minimum of twenty in the third and fourth. The initial allocation of teams is as follows:-

First Division: (Championship winner, Shannon Trophy, runner-up Stevenson Trophy, both being nominated for the B.C.F. Championship quarter-final stage)
Berks, Cambs, Essex, Herts, Kent, Middlesex, Oxon, Surrey and Sussex.

Second Division: (Montague-Jones Trophy and nomination for B.C.F. Minor Counties semi-final stage - see below)
Essex II, Kent II, Middlesex II, Surrey II, Sussex II, Beds, Bucks, Norfolk and Suffolk.

Third Division: (Amboyna Shield)
Berks II, Bucks II, Essex III, Herts II, Kent III, Middlesex III, Oxon II and Surrey III.

Fourth Division: (Ebony Shield)
Berks III, and IV, Essex IV, Herts III, Kent IV Middlesex IV, Surrey IV and Sussex III.

Amendments to the Tournament Rules will be submitted to the Council at their Annual Meeting in July and draft proposals have already been sent to council members.

Commencing next season 1972/73 the British Chess Federation have decided to institute a Minor Counties Championship on similar lines to the present County Championship and to which each Union will nominate one team. This event will be open to all minor counties and the second teams of major counties whose first teams are not eligible for this competition. It is not possible for the S.C.C.U. to operate a separate qualifying competition but the Second Division will be used for this purpose in 1972/73 and the counties concerned have been given copies of the B.C.F. Rules covering this competition and have been asked to decide whether or not they will accept nomination if their team wins the Second Division.

It is appreciated that this is not an entirely satisfactory solution of the problem of finding the best S.C.C.U. nominee, as it only covers five second teams, but it seems probable that the operation of promotion and relegation between second and third divisions will go some way to meet the problem in future seasons, always provided that there is sufficient enthusiasm among our counties for the Minor Counties Competition.

OBITUARY: J.A.J. Lambert-Gorwyn.

Mr. F.P.E. Green writes: Chess, not just in the South but nationally has suffered a loss with the sudden death of Jim Lambert-Gorwyn. A Sussex farmer all his life, he retired when he was fifty and thereafter gave much of his time and energy to his club, his county and to the B.C.F. He was Match Captain of the Hastings Club and no mean player himself; he died during the late Hastings Congress, one of its dependable officials. Sussex owe him much, since not long after he had "Retired" he found himself at the county A.G.M. when a county Treasurer was being sought; Jim was no accountant, but he was the soul of integrity, and his enthusiasm and energy for two years put the County's finances into good shape. He was persuaded to take on the Certificate of Merit Scheme for the B.C.F. and in this he secured his wife's interest and participation to such an extent that she is carrying on the scheme. To Mrs. Lambert-Gorwyn go all our sympathy in her loss, and our thanks for stepping into one of the gaps Jim has left.

The Controller, Mr. David Blackman reports: The Under-18 Jamboree was played in London and as a precaution against power cuts, the venue was moved at rather short notice from the Royal Scottish Corporation to St. Bride's. Fortunately all the organisers had time to notify their players of the change and all the players except one arrived at the correct venue on time.

The total entry of seven teams for the boys' tournament was rather disappointing but on the other it was most encouraging to see that both Suffolk and Cambridgeshire took part for the first time for many years. The final results depended on five adjudications and when these were received it transpired that Surrey had scored 9 points, closely followed by Kent on  $8\frac{1}{2}$  and Middlesex with 8. The remaining scores were Essex 7, Berkshire 4, Cambs. 3, and Suffolk  $2\frac{1}{2}$ . Surrey therefore represented the Union in the B.C.F. Final on 25th March.

Five teams contested the Girls' event, Middlesex dropping out on the day before. Surrey, last year's winners, retained the title scoring  $3\frac{1}{2}$  points out of a possible four. Kent were second with  $2\frac{1}{2}$  followed by Berks and Sussex with 2 and Essex with 0. Surrey will play in the B.C.F. Finals against Lancashire, Lincolnshire and Somerset.

The fact that the playing Hall was in use by a Badminton group until an hour before the starting time did not help a great deal and without the help of Mike Sinclair (Middlesex) I could not have hoped to get the events started on time. He was a real tower of strength, and I was most grateful for all the work which he did before, during and after the tournament. Likewise I must thank Eric Croker for his part in clearing up afterwards: both of these gentlemen made my job a lot easier.

Mr. B lackman also reports that the Berkshire Primary Schools C.A. on 11th March staged an Inter-Association Primary Schools Jamboree in Reading. Eight teams took part and the winners were South London with Nottingham in second place. High Wycombe were third followed by Berkshire "A", Birmingham, Berks "B", Swindon and Hillingdon.
