SUBSCRIPTION RATES: Annual Subscription £1 (single copy). Enquiries should be addressed to the Editor at 37 Dora Road, Wimbledon, SW19 7EZ. The Bulletin is distributed and edited by J J Lauder to whom all MSS for publication should be sent. It is produced by Mr & Mrs Threadgall.

The Executive Committee of the Union, after considering the probable increases in the cost of postage and production of the bulletin have regretfully decided that we must raise the annual subscription to one pound and charge 50p for an extra copy of the September (Grading List) issue. Present second class postage for one copy is 5½p and for a Grading List 8p - and the Press suggests rises to 9p and 10p come the autumn!

EDITORIAL

As all readers (I hope!) are aware, for some years past we have been greatly indebted to Mr George Kilmister who has cut our stencils and produced our Bulletins: now he has decided for personal reasons that the time has come when he must abandon all chess activities. He will, however, produce our September (Grading List) but the Editor takes this opportunity to put on record his deep appreciation for all the help George has given over the years in all sorts of ways in addition to his production work.

For this and subsequent normal issues of the Bulletin Mr and Mrs Bryan Threadgall have agreed to produce and we welcome their offer to help in this essential task. The Editor will continue to distribute as at present and would remind all readers that this is the last issue of the current volume with which all subscriptions expire. Readers wishing to renew their subscriptions should send me £1 and receipt of the September (Grading List) issue will serve as an acknowledgement of receipt of your subscription.

Club and county officials who normally place bulk orders for Grading Lists are asked to contact the Editor (phone 946 0844) as soon as may be convenient in order that we can estimate the number of copies to be run off and arrange for quick delivery when the September issue is ready.

OBITUARY

It is with deep personal regret that the Editor reports the death last month of Stanley Love, after a long illness at his home in Polegate, Sussex. Stanley spent the whole of his business life with the Westminster Bank of whose Chess Club he was a member for over 40 years. He was also a member of the Wimbledon club for whom he played in the first team in the London League and also appeared in Surrey team and individual competitions since the War.

He once represented Westminster Bank in the bi-annual Bankers' Olympiad in Spain and competed regularly in the Bognor Regis Congresses which included the SCCU individual Championships. Many players in our counties will recall his personality with pleasure and regret his passing from our scene. The funeral took place at Eastbourne when the Eastbourne Club was represented by the president and several members and Wimbledon and Surrey CA by the Editor:

BOOK LIST: How to Play the End Game by L W Barden pp128 £2.95 Collins. This, the third book in the latest Collins series follows the works by Levy and Keene on the openings and J E Littlewood on the middle game. With 203 diagrams Leonard Barden gives his explanatory analyses in chapters devoted to the recognised types of end-game, plus two which deal in careful detail with characteristic end-games by former World champions Fischer and Petrosian. The author's chapter on adjudication techniques will provide for thought for every adjudicator who is fortunate enough to read it and will do no harm to any keen Match Captain who has time to study Barden's advice. In its 128 pages are crammed lots of helpful hints for the ordinary match player who should certainly lose fewer endings and possibly win a few more if he can devote a little time to study Leonard Barden's excellent guide lines. A book for every student who needs to improve his end-game expertise.

How Fischer Plays Chess by D N L Levy pp160 £2.95 (Hardback) 60p (Paperback) Collins.

This book might be described as an anthology of sixty-six memorable games whose chronological arrangement provides an almost year-by-year commentary on the development of Bobby Fischer's strategy and technique as he progressed to his ultimate status of World Champion. David Levy has presented his readers with annotation in depth on each game, in many cases by a variety of other experts, together with a biographical background of Fischer's tournament achievements, likes and dislikes, not omitting the well-publicised brushes with tournament officialdom. The book ends in 1972 with a brief summary of the World Championship which the author wisely refrains from reporting in detail as all the games at Reykjavik have been published and analysed in full by many chess commentators.

Readers of Chess literature are again indebted to Messrs Collins for two widely differing but very readable books which were on sale on 9th June. I noticed that Levy, in his biographical pages refers to certain tournament organisers, whilst Barden dedicates his book to "Peter Morrish, Stuart Rueben, Eddie Penn, David Eustace and other overworked British chess organisers".

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS The Editor has received and read with pleasure the following publications:

B.C.F. News Flash, May and June issues: Sussex Chess News, March issue.

Norfolk C.C.A. News Bulletin, May issue: W.E.C.U. Westward Ho! May.

The Folkestone Easter Congress had a record entry of 139 and the Premier event first place was shared by J C Henshaw and P Van der Weide from Holland with $5\frac{1}{2}/7$ nine players sharing third place. The Major was won by J van der Zanden and second place was shared by J B Sellens, J Wilman, P C Wood and J A Bower with $4\frac{1}{2}$ points.

The East Anglian Congress also broke all previous records with 116 competitors over the 11-13 April weekend and prizes totalled £310. In the Premier event B Pribanich and D Wright shared top place with $4/5$, the third place being shared by O M Hindle, H D MacPherson and T C Noyce with $3\frac{1}{2}$. Premier Reserves first place was shared by R Alley and I S Gladden with $4/5$ third place was shared by C E Purdom, J A Speigel and Mrs D Wright. First place in the Major sections were both shared: in the 'A' by D Carpenter, W P Pfeil and P S Vainker with $4/5$ and the 'B' split four ways between T Annison, K Morrison, G Plumstead and R R Rathbone each scoring $4/5$. The Minor sections were won by R Hughes with $4/5$ and C Cumner with $4\frac{1}{2}/5$.

26th Ilford Congress over the Spring Bank Holiday weekend totalled 297 competitors of whom 108 played in the Open Championship, won by A J Miles with $6/6$. Next came R Bellin, R A Doney, J R Holland and N E Povah with $5/6$ each. The prize for highest rated player in the 170-189 group was shared by W A Linton, D C Taylor and I Watson with $4\frac{1}{2}$ and the under-170 split between M Davis and S Spivak. The under-18 prize went to S Taulbut for his score of $4\frac{1}{2}$. 165 players entered the Major event restricted to under-160 grades and the top places were shared by W T Franklin, D R C Lawson and K Warren each of whom scored $5\frac{1}{2}/6$. Third and fourth places went to no fewer than eight players, D G Cannan, M J Coogan, P Harbutt, T Pritchard, P F Brown, C C Sherwood, G Beattie and J R Beadle. The last-named took the under-130 grading prize, but a good deal of research is needed to determine the winners of the 140-149 and 130-139 grades and at the time of going to press this has not been resolved. The high standard of efficiency expected from the organisers was well maintained and at the end of the Congress the thanks of the players was expressed in a brief speech by the Union Hon. Treasurer, Mr F C Manning.

The London Chess Club Junior Invitation Tournaments included 275 of the best young players in the country who competed in events for all ages from under-18 to under 7, held at the Mary Ward Centre and the Central Y.M.C.A. over the 4-6 April weekend. The Union under-18 event went to J S Speelman $4\frac{1}{2}$, C S Crouch was second with 4 followed by J C Benjamin, D A Curnow, J C Pigott, J J Esseinger (Leics), S Fancy and P J Lee (Hants) scoring $3\frac{1}{2}$. There were 37 players in this event. In the under 16 event D Shuttleworth (Lancs) scored $4\frac{1}{2}$ S J Brickman S Spivack and T Fernley (Yorks) all 4. Brickman and Spivack shared the Union title. The Girls under-18 event was won by Jane Seymour (who is only 13) with a clear score $4/4$, followed by Helen Granat, Pandora Kay-Kreizman and Wanda Pritchard, all from Surrey with $3/4$. The Union title went to Wanda Pritchard on a tie-break, who thus retains her title. 23 girls took part in this event. Once again the thanks of our Junior players are due to Leonard Barden and Peter Morrish and all their helpers in this very successful event.
