APPEAL

Kent appealed against the decision of the adjudicator on Board 9 of their match against Middlesex (Stop Press page seven of our January issue) The appeal was upheld and the result given as a draw - the match is therefore won by Kent by 10½ - 9½.

'ABSENT ONES' (continued from January)

Defaults this season up to 5th February have reached the following totals: Beds 21, Surrey 11, Essex 7, Cambs 5, Sussex 3, Kent and Oxford 2, Middlesex 1, Berks Bucks Herts and Norfolk have fielded complete teams in all their matches.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS: The Editor has received and read with interest the following publications: BCF Newsflash February 1977, Westwood Ho! (WECU) Dec. 76, Bucks CCA Newsletter Jan, Surrey CCA Newsletter Feb, Norfolk CCA News Bulletin Feb.

The Editor learns with much regret the death of Mr D M Bond of Camborne, Cornwall who represented his county on the Council of the West of England Union and also represented that Union on the Council and Executive of the B.C.F. In addition to many other services to the game, he edited 'Westward Ho!' the News Bulletin of the W.E.C.U. and his untimely death will be a severe loss to Chess in the West of England.

SECRETARIES COLUMN

The Editor made a quick check on the coming congresses available to chess players in the U.K. during the next six months and counted over forty! It is not possible to list all of them in this Bulletin, but they will be found in full in the monthly issues of NewsFlash and the following list are on offer to residents of the southern counties:
