EDITORIAL

I have little to say, except congratulations to KENT (County Champions again, after a three-year tenure by Middlesex); CAMBS (Minor Counties Champions for the first time); and MIDDX (Second Teams Champions, for the fourth time in seven years). And, on the Junior front, to MIDDX Girls for their National U18 Championship; OXON Girls for their National Minor U18 Championship; SURREY for winning one of the two(!) National U16 Championships; and KENT for their first ever National U11 Championship. What worries me a bit is that so many congratulations are called for. In the last ten years the County Championship has been almost continuously in the Southern Counties; the only exception was 1982 when Yorkshire poked their nose in. In the last 15 years only four counties have won the Championship (Kent 6 times, Middx 5, Lancs and Yorks 2 each). However soothing this may be to a Southerner's self-esteem, it isn't healthy.

ORDERS

Your subscription expires with this issue, unless you are among the handful of people who have paid early. (This always confuses me.) You will find, or have found, a renewal form somewhere in the envelope; fill it in and return it straight away if you want to renew. You know you'll forget if you put it off. All county secretaries get a free subscription, courtesy of the Union. Other county officers receiving free Bulletins do so because their counties have subscribed on their behalf. Prod your county treasurer if you think he's likely to forget this time!

There is also an order form for SCCU and BCF grading lists. At least three counties have ordered special county lists, and these will be on general sale as well. All the lists include game results for the last three seasons - not two, as previously - and the result is that many more players qualify for inclusion.

Bulletins and grading lists have to be ordered from two different addresses, and require separate cheques. Bear with us. Please don't attempt to combine your orders, it makes extra work at this end.

SCCU COUNCIL MEETING

The Council's Annual Meeting was held on Saturday 2nd July 1988 at the Pastoria Hotel off Leicester Square. (And the room cost £100, but what do you expect in central London?) Sixteen attended, we think, and every county except Essex (?and Cambs) was represented. Main points of interest:

(1) Money. The (unaudited) accounts showed a surplus for the year of £394. Nearly half the Union's income came from grading services.

Budget: The county levy was fixed at £8 per levy point (same as last year); Middx have applied for a 2-point reduction in their levy number and Surrey may appeal too, but the effect on the forthcoming year's income would be small or nil. Bulletin and grading list are to cost more; see inside front cover.

Trophies: There was some doubt whether the Junior ones were insured. The Fleming and Anness Trophies (for the two U18 titles, and we think we know which way round) have not been engraved in the last 20 years; getting it done could be quite expensive, if we ever find out who all the winners were. Some of the trophies are solid silver; a suggestion to sell these and buy cheaper replacements was not pursued.

(2) Grading. Martin Cath reported that the new BCF grading programs suffer from one or two "minor irritants" (your Editor thinks he heard the quotation marks). The BCF think they can sort things out. The BCF's intention to sell all grading lists itself in the fairly near future, and take all the profits, was greeted with some scepticism: all the BCF's data comes from the Unions, who may not be inclined to hand it over for nothing. (One of them's not much inclined to hand it over as things are.)

It seemed that Middx would once again be supplying no grading data from their internal leagues. The grader had received the game results, and given assurances that all was in hand; but nothing had emerged. It would be just possible to accept late results from him up to the 11th July (but not for new players). Note. We hear 11.7.88 that the BCF has been able to extend the deadline to the end of July, and that the Middx results are in the post anyway. So, apart from the new players, all's well. Unless, of course, the extended deadline means the BCF's three weeks behind schedule already... Later: The BCF say not.

(3) SCCU County Matches 1987-8. Douglas Opie, County Match Controller, said that some counties were very casual about providing refreshments.

(4) SCCU Individual Championship. There was some discussion of the possibility of moving this event around. Choices were limited, if we wanted to use a long-weekend event with leisurely rates of play.

(5) Juniors. Peter Morrish gave a general report on developments. There were improvements in the fields of training and sponsorship (£4000+ had just been secured for our nominees in the forthcoming World Junior Championships). A computerised database of promising players was in active preparation.

(6) SCCU County Match Rules. You will know that the Executive was proposing a restructured competition in three divisions, with promotion and relegation. The Bucks delegates had instructions from their county to oppose this on the ground that their stronger players would not be keen to turn out against second-team opposition. (A feeling also came across that the non-Metropolitan counties feared being turned into second-class citizens.) There was a movement afoot in the Chilterns to start a Chiltern League division for first teams, and there was a real danger that if the new structure were approved Bucks might support this and withdraw from the SCCU leagues.

In the preliminary skirmishing, one of the Bucks people proposed an amendment to the draft eligibility rules. The Executive, at the drafting stage, had been divided between those who thought no one should appear for two teams in the same division, and those who thought the existing rules were adequate. A compromise had emerged, with the rules tightened up but stopping short of a complete ban. The Bucks amendment was for a complete ban. Middx thought it would be unworkable. Bucks said they would withdraw it in exchange for an assurance that first and second teams would always play simultaneously. The Chairman said this could not be guaranteed, so they didn't. The amendment was lost by 8 votes to 9.

A Bucks man remarked that one part of the draft was completely incomprehensible. The Secretary, who had been ready for this one, read out a lengthy explanation of the dubious point. The Bucks man understood this, but the Chairman (who had understood the rule to start with) found it completely incomprehensible. Council adopted the unorthodox solution of agreeing to put the explanation in the minutes. Whether the minutes will be a part of the tournament rules was not specified.

Someone then proposed an amendment that "he/she" should be changed to "he". This was lost by one vote. So he proposed that it should be changed to "he or she", and it was. Readers will appreciate the vital significance of this point.

Council, unable to delay any longer, took a vote and the (amended!) draft was approved by 13 votes to 3. The transitional arrangements, to get the new competitions under way in 1989-90, were agreed without dissent. At the end of the coming season, the winner of the second division will be promoted, and the first division will be reduced to 8 teams by relegating as many teams as necessary. (The wording was a bit vague, and we think the first division would be topped up to 8 teams, if necessary, by extra promotions; but the question probably won't arise.) Then the winner of the third division will be promoted. Then the bottom team in the second division will be relegated, unless that would make less than 6 teams in the second division, in which case no relegation will occur.

(7) Election of Officers. There were no surprises. Douglas Opie, who had announced earlier in the season that he would not be standing again, was replaced as County Match Controller by Brian Sammes. Your Editor has just realised, with considerable irritation at himself, that he omitted to check the spelling of the first name; sorry if it's wrong. Names and addresses of Officers and County Delegates are inside the front cover. The Southern Counties Match Captain, RCA Lee-Pentecost (formerly Pentecost), is now called Lee-Anderson; and we note, with startled admiration, that his initials have changed as well.

(8) Award. Council noted, with much satisfaction, that Peter Morrish had recently received a (BCF) President's Award for Services to Chess.

(9) BCF Management Board. There was some discussion of the composition of the MB. It seems that certain BCF Officers would like to dispense with Union delegates (and sorry if this is an over-simplification, but it was the way your Editor understood it). There were members of the SCCU Council who agreed with them.

SCCU EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

The Executive met, as always, immediately after the Council Meeting. It did routine things like appointing delegates to the BCF Management Board(!) (EE Croker, WA Suttill); the sixth member of the SCCU Management Board (RJ Haddrell); and the Rules and Appeals sub-committee (BG Sammes, EE Croker, OV Stobart, G Parker, FC Manning).

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Dear Richard,

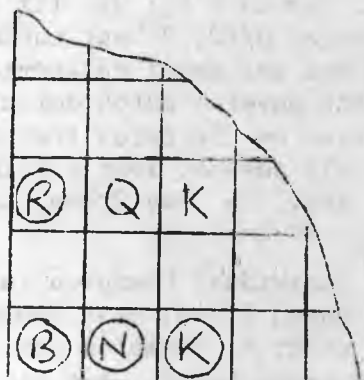

Herewith a copy of the prizewinners list for our weekend tournament in Bayswater 11-12 June.

Entries were down on last June by about 20 and, with the many tournaments we have run, we have, this time, created the unhappy precedent of making a loss of the order of £150. I wonder how many people know that the hall cost us £1500 for the weekend, an increase of £350 over last June! Organisers are only too well aware of the rising cost of venues in London and certainly we are going to have to sit back and think. There was a lot of discussion at the weekend of sponsorship generally (we had none on this occasion nor, for that matter, last year) and it was noted with interest that while Belgium, Holland and Germany find strong sponsorship, France which not long ago was a wilderness has now jumped in on the act and in a substantial way. Yet in England there is nothing like the same interest by sponsors - in fact we know of 2 major sponsors who are withdrawing.

Yours sincerely,
Tony Suttill Kings Head CC

ON THE LAWS

A correspondent in Pergamon CHESS (who have kindly sent us their June issue) has found a charming bug in the FIDE Laws. We only wish we'd found it ourselves. (You will, Richard, you will). The illustrative position is ours, since the one in CHESS tends to obscure the issue. (No prizes for working out Black's last move; we did it that way, at some risk of obscuring the issue ourselves, purely to save space.)

The solution is 1 Qc2!! and yes, it's legal. The Laws define check as a situation where the King is attacked by one or two pieces. It is therefore perfectly legal to get out of double check by turning it into triple check, since triple check is not legally check at all. (Readers will know that leaving your King in check is not illegal anyway, except in the case - as here - where you were in check to start with. But that's another story.) We hope Pergamon will keep up the good work. Their new CHESS is meaty and readable.

White to move and mate in one.

MIDDX Leagues 1987-8: Div I 1 Hackney 1 10/14, 2 Hampstead 1 10; Div II 1 Hackney 3 9/14, 2 Camden 1 8½; Div III 1 Ealing 1 11/14, 2 Silent Knights 9½; Div IV 1 Willesden 8/10, 2 West London 2 7½; Div V 1 Hackney IV 9½/12, 2 Kings Head 5 6½. "There was the usual collection of defaults (is it me or are they on the increase?) including several match defaults and even 2 void matches where the teams could not even agree on the dates for their fixtures. One team, who sent me only one match result all season, lost all their adjudication claims by default as they did not submit any." - Roy Brown, League Secretary

SUSSEX Individual Champion is Brian Denman; Lightning Champion Luke Rutherford; East Sussex Queen T Woo; West Sussex Queen D Oates; Veterans Champion DB Scott.

Under 11 Champion school is Sir Henry Fermor (Crowborough) who had won the title 6 times before, but not since 1984. They also took the U11 Girls Championship in a close final against Tollgate (Eastbourne). St Margarets CEP Ditchling took the Junior Section of the Mid-Sussex League.

No news, unless we've lost it, of the main Sussex Leagues.

A County League Secretary received a result this season with a 13 pence stamp on. Old pence. (Yes, one-and-a-penny. We don't know what the basic letter tariff was on decimalisation in 1971, but as late as 1974 it was only 3½p. So really, considering that 1/1d works out at almost 5½p, the Post Office was mean to complain.)

A brevity from the match which decided the Middx Championship. "After playing 12 Qa2 and believing he had swopped a bad position for a complicated one, Black departed to the bar to buy a pint while his opponent had a long think. When he returned and saw what White had done he at first looked confused, then said something which cannot be repeated in a family (sic!) bulletin, and finally tried 0-0."

Team sections of congresses always seem to incorporate an unofficial competition for wierdest name; this time they made it official (only they said "best"), and Virginia won. Their real names (Alal Miah, Basa Miah, Omir Tahir, Piklu Baidyu) would have won prizes in your Editor's part of the world. Results Roy Brown

Not sure we believe the next bit - the press release was the sort you have to solve - but it's there in black and white (and newsflash believes it). They gave £25 prizes for Lowest Score in each event. Silly. The winners weren't SCCU people, and we'll spare their blushes.

The Congress counts for FIDE "active chess" ratings. George Smith in newsflash gives a brief explanation of the way "active" ratings, and norms, will be calculated. (Start from current "normal" ratings, then use the standard rules.) There are some lacunae in the draft regulations. He says, or newsflash does, that titles would have to be paid for, and the implication, though it doesn't actually say so, is that this is the case with ordinary titles. Is it? Who pays?

Since we've moved on to grading, someone's been getting at the New Player List (which goes to graders in a late tidying-up exercise). Usually the names in it are entirely upper case, as in the published list. But this time a few are not, and the computer's sorted them wrong. What an incompetent computer, we thought. Turns out you're not supposed to be able to give it lower case, but a grader gee-whizzed his Spectrum. The Bulletin is on his side. SMITH ROD is unclear. The grader who typed "LeHOHE R" instead of "LEHOHE R" (in the Supplementary List, actually) was making a useful distinction, and it isn't his fault the name's come out three and a half pages from where it should have done because the BCF haven't taught their computer to sort properly.

Correction from last time:

The Championship quarter-final Hants v Northumberland was actually Glos v Northumberland, and Glos won $8\frac{1}{2}$ - $7\frac{1}{2}$. Your Editor is blameless.
