6-round rapidplay for teams of four players

Tournament Controller: Adam Raof

Refreshments to be provided by yElena & Norman Went

Website <https://sccu-chess.com>

Entry limited to 40 teams

Sections

Minor:	Average team grade no more than 120
Inter:	Average team grade no more than 150
Major:	Average team grade no more than 180

Eligibility

Open to all Clubs in the SCCU/London area. Players must have played at least two games for their Club during the 2018/19 season. All players must be at least Bronze level ECF members.

Grades

The competition will use rapidplay grades in the January 2019 ECF list. If no January grade, we'll use the August 2018 list. For those without a rapidplay grade, we'll use the January 2019 ECF standard play rating. Players with no English rating will be given a rating by the organiser. All games will be submitted for inclusion in the July 2019 grading list. Any player whose grade is more than 50 points below the limit will be deemed to be graded exactly 50 points below the limit.

Conditions of Entry

The SCCU's General Rules, Conditions of Entry, Privacy Policy and Child Protection Policy shall apply to all entrants. For details see the SCCU website: <https://sccu-chess.com>. The competition rules will also appear on the website.

Disputes

In all disputes the decision of the Congress Controller is final.
